"If I am asked what worries me?" "In reply I would say that it is the education and upbringing of our children", says Shavkat Mirziyoyev, the president of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

Thanks to our independence, special attention is paid to the system of public education, particularly esthetic education and upbringing of the young generation. In this regard, the President of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev has raised this question at the level of state policy. In his speeches the president emphasized "Another important issues that we are constantly thinking about is the questions related to the morals, behavior, and outlook, in general the background of our young people". Today the time is rapidly changing. It is the young people who are most likely to experience these changes. Let the youth meet the requirements of their day. But at the same time they have not to forget their identity. We are always told that we are the descendants of noble generations and always encourage them to remain faithful in their hearts. So today's youth should find the correct way to get their purposes by following a great treasure left by our great ancestors, studying their precious works, which surely help them to fill their spiritual world. Alisher Navoi's is a noble statesman of his time, the great-grandfather of our great ancestors. His masterpiece works will help our young people in carrying out their sacred aims. His works are considered as worthy literature and source in all youth's education. He could use every word in his works efficiently and appropriately. His each wise word is a lesson for us. The life and heritage of Alisher Navoi are examples to us in educating young people about universal qualities. The great poet, with his educational background, made a great contribution to the education of a harmonious generation, and his ideas about universal qualities are also important for each person of the present day.

Navai's views and ideas in all spheres, including literature, music, economics, science put forward by the people today serves as a life-style programming. That is why Navai is the name that has been lived for centuries. The first President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Islam Abduganievich Karimov, the author of the book "High spirituality in the power of invincible force" said: "It is worth mentioning that there is no speaker in the Turkic and Persian languages who do not know Navai and do not look at Navai with loyalty and conviction. They made a great deal of respect for Navai and described as the great master of speech. If we say that he is saint, he is the saint of the saints; the thinker- the thinker of the thinkers; the poet – he is the king of poets. Alisher Navai is a great person who created an entire era in the history of art and culture of the people, the unique figure of our national literature, an immortal word singer who honored the honor and glory of our nation. [1] In fact, the whole world is well aware of the fact that Navai used the word in terms of dichotomy and used it efficiently.

Studying and promoting Navai's creativity, first of all, is the skill of encourage to show love, talent and observation skills. A person who has lost his life and who has not been able to look at the real life with extensive glimpse of the reality will diminish the value of Navai's works. When reading Navai, one must bear in mind that everyword, character, and expression of each one of them is expressed in an excitement of excitement and refreshment

Speaking about art, music, in one of his masterpieces, A. Navai said, "a singer raising joyful mood, a melodious musician dispersing grief, and both of them are slaughtered by the sensual people and the people who are in sorrow. As they sing pleasant melody what happens if the listener's life soaks in that melody? For the heart is fed by sweet melody, and the spirit is fed by a sweet voice."

The main part of the bayaz, the collection of songs, which today is used by singers and composers, consists of gazelles of AlisherNavai. The value of his poetry, poetic art and methods proportionate to the value, methods and rhythms used over the centuries, by the number of generations of great musicians, and the value of other musical forms on the path of magnitude. Therefore, many from centuries till now, the songs that are executed with the words Navai are located on the maqom, irrigation or Tashkent-Ferghana highway "Bay o t-II", "Ushshaq", "Qoshchinor", "QoshchinorII", "Chorgoh-III" and others are the works, that the pride of Uzbek music. [2] The gazelles of Navai give vital lessons to all mankind on labor, honesty, friendship and cooperation, honesty and sincerity. Harassment and injustice are harshly condemned by conflicts and bloody clashes, and wars that are destabilizing.

AlisherNavai watched the character of people in his time. He compared his observations, what he had seen, and made conclusions from them. In his book "Mahbub-ul-Qulub" AlisherNavai writes: "I have run all the streets and have delivered myself to the people of the world. I know the character of the good and bad, I experiment with good and bad habits, and tasted the honey and poison of good and evil. The sore throat and the ointment caused by the crushed have been felt by the heart. It is necessary to inform one another about the interlocutors and friends, and to warn them of these things, from the attributes of each of them and the knowledge of the various classes, so that the worthy men will be served." [3] Navai observed all people and the lines he had written reach to the deepest points of the whole mankind hearts, because he lives in the peoples souls reaching the heart of humanity.

Through all the works of AlisherNavai, we can realize deeper his personality. As an example, let's look through one of the works, which is titled "Vaqqiyya". This work was created between 1481 and 1482. Vaqqiyya includes the information about the activities of Navai as a statesman, and the buildings he constructed. "Vaqqiyya" begins with a vivid preface, which involves Hamd, na't and praise to Sultan Hussein.

In the conclusion, A. Navai proved to be a great scientist in various spheres throughout his life. As the scholar Said Sherazi, our great grandfather, said, "Music is a companion of the humans soul," explaining by a few valuable ideas, how valuable the music is in humans life. The melody and the songs which came into being through it's gazelles have been living for centuries. Just only this shows that he is a great person.
